She has been engaged in the Atlanta film industry for years, loves building experiences as well as showing off Atlanta and Georgia film. As a natural connector, Carrie often serves as a liaison between film and television crews working in “Atlanta’s backlot” of Castleberry Hill, which sparked her initial interest in the filming boom in Georgia.

She is dedicated to closing the gap between crews, neighbors and local businesses in order to create a symbiotic relationship for all involved during filming and keep the fun (and incentives) rolling in! Bringing film tourism into

She serves as Southern Provincial VP for Delta Sigma Pi and on the ArtsATL board as well as others.
